

Fresh Flowers from The Bounty Farm

Your purchase of sustainably grown Bounty Farm flowers helps to create a healthier Petaluma food system, by directly supporting Petaluma Bounty's programs, including community gardens, community food gleaning, wholesale fresh food boxes for low income families, and the Bounty Farm.

How about a Weekly Bounty Bouquet?

For just $18 a week, you'll get your weekly Bounty Bouquet from mid-June to mid-October of annual and perennial cut flowers delivered to your home or business, fresh from the Bounty Farm.

We also offer a bucket of mixed flowers for $30 per week for restaurants who wish to make smaller bouquets for their tables.

The Bounty Farm is Petaluma Bounty's educational urban farm, growing healthy food for low-income families, and offering classes, workshops and volunteer opportunities. All proceeds support Petaluma Bounty's programs.

Deliveries on Tuesday and Friday mornings
